

DEAR

I'm back, it's that time of year,
To spread and bring some holiday cheer.
From the North Pole, I've made my way,
To watch over you each and every day.

In Santa's name, I'll report and spy,
To see if you're naughty or nice, oh my!
But don't you worry, it's all in good fun!

For Christmas magic has just begun.
I'll hide in new places, high and low,
Where you can't see, I'll never go.
Just remember to look and seek, And maybe leave me a treat to sneak.
So be kind and loving, and full of glee, And soon it will be Christmas Eve, you'll see.
